

Specialist Homelessness Support Program

Job Package

Part Time SHS Support Worker

Pathfinders

Pathfinders is a large community-based organisation providing Supported Accommodation and Homelessness services, Family and Youth Support services, National Aboriginal Birth Certificate program, Client Support Services and Out of Home Care services. Pathfinders' services are located across the Mid North Coast, New England and North-West Tablelands of NSW including Armidale, Inverell, Glen Innes, Tamworth, Taree, Kempsey, Port Macquarie, Coffs Harbour and Moree. Pathfinders' vision is that all children, young people and their families will have a home and family where they feel they belong, are free from abuse, neglect, discrimination and inequality, and are able to achieve and contribute to their full potential.

The Sanctuary Model

Sanctuary is an organisational framework that ensures that our culture and practices are guided by Trauma-informed principles. Sanctuary goes beyond providing a set of tools and techniques – it is a culture shift to address the effects of trauma at every level.

Pathfinders have made a commitment to embed the accredited and widely adopted Sanctuary model into every aspect of our organisation.

Specialist Homelessness Services

The Specialist Homelessness Services (SHS) program, including the Women and Childrens refuge provides prevention, early intervention, rapid rehousing, crisis and transition responses and intensive support for people with complex needs, who are at risk of homelessness or are homeless. Through intensive case management support, people are supported to address the issues that have led them to becoming at risk of homelessness, or homeless. Pathfinders has a 'No Wrong Door' policy that provides support, including referral support, where it is needed.

Role of SHS Support Worker

The Support Work will assist people to break the cycle of homelessness as well as focus on those at risk of homelessness that can be supported to remain in long term safe accommodation.

The Support Worker will require knowledge and understanding of the issues that affect Aboriginal communities, societies and cultures in NSW and be willing to advocate on behalf of Aboriginal people and their families in providing cultural support and provide services to Aboriginal and Non- Aboriginal children, people and families. The Support Worker will also be required to build strong relationships with Aboriginal agencies to support and strengthen families and cultural connections

Specific tasks and responsibilities

Position and Organisational Responsibilities

The key responsibilities are as follows but are not limited to:

Contribute to the achievement of these four SHS Program outcomes:

- People who are at imminent risk of homelessness are identified and supported to remain safely in their existing housing, or to secure stable housing.
- People who experience homelessness are rapidly and safely re-housed.
- People who are in crisis are provided with safe and secure accommodation and supported to access stable housing.
- People who are re-housed after becoming homeless are supported to stay housed.

The SHS delivery framework comprises four dimensions:

- A client-centered approach that places the client at the center of all service responses
- Evidence-based practice responses in four core areas - intervening early to prevent homelessness, rapid rehousing, crisis and transition responses and intensive responses for complex needs clients
- SHS service system enablers including access, service quality, and industry and workforce development
- Links with other human services to ensure SHS responses are part of the broader service system and building/maintaining connections with family and community.

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Deliver information, initial assessment, referral and coordination role for clients referred to or presenting at the service (when it is safe to do so).
- Active participation in local service system planning.
- All work must be carried out in accordance with current service policies, procedures, aims and objectives, common law and funding agreement guidelines.
- Ensure that the service is provided with particular sensitivity to the individual and cultural needs of all clients.
- Provide Equitable Service Delivery.
- Attend as directed, and actively participate in work related conferences, meetings and training courses – some of which may be outside the local area and require overnight stays.
- Actively participate in a service evaluation and also staff appraisals: identify training needs and develop goals and work plan for the next year.
- Attend regular supervision with the Program Manager.
- Bring to staff meetings and if necessary, to the manager any problems or issues that are/may affect the operation of the service.
- Ensure procedures are followed in the repair of all property, vehicles and equipment to service standards.

- Necessity to work flexible hours and be on-call.
- To recognise and monitor job stress and personal needs as a worker and take active responsibility for your own wellbeing in the workplace.
- Any other duties as required.

Client-Centered approach

- Commitment to a client-centered approach
- Promoting client mutual obligations towards resolving and preventing their homelessness and having a range of opportunities for their input into setting and reviewing case plan goals and service responses

Intervening early to prevent homelessness

- promote awareness of the causes of homelessness and the early warning signs and factors indicating that a person may be at risk of becoming homeless
- work closely with 'first-to-know' services (such as housing providers, correctional facilities, schools, domestic and family violence services, police, child and family services and other services) to identify people at risk of becoming homeless
- work in conjunction with relevant services to provide personal, emotional and practical support to help people at risk of becoming homeless to stay safely housed
- work with others to promote innovative housing solutions
- facilitate access to income support, other financial help, legal and/or financial advice, family support and mediation services and tenancy advice and support services
- advocate on behalf of the client to help them access services and navigate the service system
- help a client to access education and employment opportunities and to build positive connections with family members where possible and with the broader community
- provide and facilitate access to post-crisis support to sustain people in their accommodation.

Pathfinders – Purpose and Goals

Pathfinder's vision is that all Children, People and their Families have a home and family where they feel they belong, are free from abuse, neglect, discrimination and inequality and are able to achieve and contribute to their full potential in Australian society.

Pathfinders Vision

The Pathfinders vision is to develop thriving communities in which all people can fully participate and develop freely through mutual trust and acceptance. We see this being achieved through collaborative strategies and best practices, a strong and respectful workforce, and advancing bold and progressive ideas and policies

Pathfinders Mission

Our mission is to empower people to live with hope and equal opportunity to reach their potential. We provide hope through purpose and passion; generously sharing our expertise, knowledge and resources to make a transformative difference. We create equal opportunity by facilitating access to education, employment and safe housing; breaking down barriers that are obstacles to growth and independence.

Pathfinders Principles of Service

The following principles guide our provision of services to children, people and their families:

- Our practice will reflect the rights of children, people and their families to social justice, economic and social equality and self-determination and to be free from discrimination based on religion, gender, race, sexuality or disability
- Quality service provision based on equity and need
- Community based, collaborative approaches to the provision of services
- Individualised, flexible case planning using a strengths-based intervention model that ensures the safety, emotional security and connectedness of our clients
- Culturally appropriate interactions with families and children are paramount
